Class based music learning:

Curriculum Music Lessons

---

What is it?

Music lessons provided in schools throughout the school day to deliver classroom music curriculum at primary or secondary level as determined by the school in collaboration with Cambridgeshire Music.

What do we provide?

- Music lessons on a weekly basis throughout term time, with the length of lesson determined by the school, in collaboration with CM.
- A progressive learning process with regular monitoring and assessments.
- Fully qualified teachers to deliver a balanced musical.
- PPA cover provision if requested.
- “First Access” instrumental programmes (large group tuition/wider opportunities) on request although we recommend you consider the Music Explorers service as the best option for this.

---

What responsibilities do you have?

- Schools must provide a suitable learning environment for the lesson.
- To provide access to smart board technology if required.
- To liaise with the music teacher about any specific requirements connected with the curriculum, to enable effective planning to be carried out.
- To liaise with the music teacher about any situations that may affect the delivery of the lesson, in advance where possible e.g. school trips.
- To advise the music teacher about any pupils with special learning needs, which may affect the learning of those pupils.

---

What does the cost include?

As well as the progressive lessons:

- We provide teachers with QTS qualifications who can deliver class music lessons.
- End of year assessments for reports. Other assessments can be carried out by the music teacher if requested.
- Support for school concerts and parents evenings.
- We provide a fully vetted and managed music tutor with all appropriate disclosure and barring checks (DBS) carried out.

More...
We provide online support for our client accounts to improve communication and speed up contractual management processes.

- Access to special events as appropriate e.g. Live Music week.
- We provide PPA time to the teacher as part of the package.

What if I need instruments?

Class sets of instruments can be loaned on a term by term basis as detailed below subject to availability. There are discounts for multiple sets.

Is there any financial support available?

For whole class instrumental work, for example, there may be funds available via the Music Education Hub for Cambridgeshire which can cover part of the cost of tutor and instrument provision.

What does it cost?
