Cambridgeshire’s Forest School Conference 2019

Saturday 27 April 2019
9.30am – 4.15pm
Wildawood Forest School,
Rosewood Stud,
Freckenham Road, Chippenham,
Cambridgeshire CB7 5QH

New venue! New format!

This conference is relevant to all professionals, working within the early years and primary sectors, wanting to further develop their outdoor learning knowledge and skills.

This year’s conference will include:

Keynote - Lily Horseman
How does the ethos of Forest School impact on the day to day delivery?
In her role as chair of the Forest School Association Lily reflects on the principles and criteria that guide Forest School and how that shapes what happens out in the woods. She will help us explore what Forest School means to all of us, whatever stage we are at in our Forest School journey, and how our own values shape the approach.

Workshops*
- Play in nature and the nature of play – Lily Horseman (Kindling and Chair of FSA)
- A sharp knife is a safe knife – Carol Middleton (huathe)
- Muddy Music: bringing songs and rhythms to Forest School – Elizabeth Swift (huathe)
- Building nature connection with sensory games – Ian Henderson (Forest School Adventures)

*Workshops may be changed for reasons beyond our control
