Keynote speakers:

Jean Gross (CBE) - Jean’s keynote ‘Resilient Children’ will explore the magic trio of factors that enable children to cope against all the odds. Jean will describe ways that staff can help children develop the personal strengths to cope with life’s challenges.

Penny Tassoni is an international education consultant. Her keynote ‘Being strategic matters!’ will look at strategic and practical ways that make a difference. This thought provoking presentation will explore and expand on her latest book ‘Reducing Educational Disadvantage.’ This book received the ERA Award for Early Years 2017.

Workshops include*:

- Working with parents and vulnerable families
- Storytelling
- Planning in the moment
- Benefits of block play
- Interacting or interfering
- Supporting language & cognitive development
- Recruiting and supporting men in the early years and schools

*Subject to change
