To understand the place of RE in the curriculum
What should be taught in RE?
Simple methods to make RE exciting but relevant
What are the world religions and how can I teach this as a non-specialist primary teacher?

RE is like a Tardis. Despite the small space it occupies in the curriculum, it is huge; encompassing nothing less than humanity’s most searching questions, its deepest hopes, the history of the world’s beliefs and their diverse manifestation in the modern world. Working with unfamiliar content and deeply held beliefs can be intimidating for teachers of RE (NATRE 2016). This CPD session aims to make non-specialist primary teachers of RE more confident in their curriculum and subject knowledge of RE. It aims to show how RE can be planned simply and effectively and so getting away from endless work sheets. It will also help to put RE in perspective in the curriculum and show its importance.

To book a place please go to https://www.cambslearntogether.co.uk/religious-education/

Any queries please contact: Laura Corcoran at laura.corcoran@peterborough.gov.uk